§ 17. Only authorised aids and resources may be used to complete assessments. The Director of Studies determines the aids and resources that are permitted.	Aids and resources
§ 18. ¹ A student who has engaged in dishonest conduct will not be awarded a pass mark for the assessment in question. ² Usually, the whole assessment will have to be repeated at the next scheduled opportunity. ³ In compliance with standard procedure, the Director of Studies may request to the President that the university initiate disciplinary action against that student. ⁴ If an instance of dishonest conduct is uncovered at a later date, the university may withdraw a title already conferred or insist on the consequences listed under Paragraphs 1 or 3 above.	Dishonest conduct
§ 19. ¹ If a student misses an opportunity to complete an assessment without a valid reason, they will not be awarded a pass mark for the module in question. ² An assessment that has been missed for a valid reason must be completed at a later date. Examples include force majeure (floods, earthquakes, etc.), illness, military service, accident, death or any other family emergency. Reasons for missing an assessment must be disclosed as soon as they become known and appropriate evidence must be produced. ³ In the event of doubt, the Director of Studies' decision is final.	Missed assessments
§ 20. The universities govern the participation in assessments of external specialists.	External specialists
B. Grading
§ 21. A student's performance is graded on a scale from 6 to 1 or using descriptive language. Grade 6: very good, Grade 5: good, Grade 4: sufficient, Grade 3: insufficient, Grade 2: poor, Grade 1: very poor.	Grading system
§ 22. Assessments are evaluated by the examining instructors or persons specifically assigned to the task.	Evaluation of assessments
§ 23. After a student has completed a Master of Advanced Studies programme, a final assessment is given. Details are governed by the university.	Final assessment
§ 24. A module is considered to have been passed if the required assessments have been completed and if a student's performance in this module is sufficient. The rules relating to module groups are defined by the universities.	Criteria for passing a module
§ 25. ¹ A student who has not passed a module must repeat the assessments of that module in accordance with the university's programme-specific regulations. Modules can be repeated only once. Paragraph 4 below is reserved. ² The new assessment replaces the old one; programme-specific exceptions may be provided for. In the event of dishonesty or failure to repeat an assessment, the new evaluation will automatically replace the old one. ³ Assessments of modules that have not been awarded a pass mark usually have to be repeated at the next scheduled opportunity. ⁴ The Director of Studies may provide for resit exams or the opportunity to improve on work previously submitted. In such a case, the Director of Studies will determine the details unless these are governed by provisions issued by the university. A resit exam or the resubmission of work completed does not constitute repetition. Furthermore, resit exams and the resubmission of work completed are subject to the same provisions as the assessments. ⁵ The repetition of modules, resit exams and the resubmission of work completed are subject to a charge.	Obtaining a new module assessment
